

4-H & FFA General Rules and Camper Rules

4-H Code of Conduct Camper Rules

4-H CODE OF CONDUCT

All 4-H and FFA activities and events will adhere to the appropriate Code of Conduct and the Idaho 4-H Program Policies and Procedures (document # 91605). As educational programs, the vision of Idaho 4-H is: A leader in developing Idaho's youth to become responsible, productive citizens, meeting the changing needs of a diverse society. The vision of FFA is: All Idaho citizens will have an appreciation for agriculture, natural resources and the environment. Agricultural education will be a vital part of public education and will be viewed as an asset to the community. The mission of 4-H is: 4-H empowers youth to reach their full potential through working and learning in partnership with caring adults. The mission of FFA and Agricultural Education is to prepare and support individuals for careers; and to build awareness and develop leadership for the food, fiber, and natural resource system. The mission is accomplished through technical instruction in the classroom, experiential education through the laboratory, Supervised Agricultural Experience (SAE) Program, and leadership and personal development through the FFA.

An Exhibitor who violates any rules in any department will forfeit all privileges and premiums. In the furtherance of their official duty, all judges, fair and livestock show management, or other officials shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening behavior toward them.

4-H and FFA Program participants are expected to:

- ♦Conduct themselves in a courteous, respectful manner ♦Provide positive role models for younger youth
- ♦Exhibit good sportsmanship ♦Respect, adhere to, and enforce the Idaho 4-H/FFA rules, policies, and guidelines

Volunteers, 4-H and FFA parents are expected to:

- ♦Be courteous and respectful ♦Encourage good sportsmanship and participation ♦Be a positive role model for all youth
- ♦Respect, demonstrate, adhere to, and enforce any policies or guidelines of the 4-H or FFA program
- ♦Communicate all exhibitor policy and rules, concerns or issues first to the appropriate WCF Division Superintendent (appropriate 4-H or FFA personnel) to resolve issue
- ♦Refrain from consuming alcoholic beverages or using controlled substances
- ♦Not verbally or physically abuse children or others ♦ Follow 4-H and FFA Code of Conduct in addressing all concerns

If the WCF Division Superintendent cannot resolve the concern or issue, bring the issue or concern to a WC Fair board member and/or University of Idaho Extension Staff.

FAIRGROUNDS CAMPER RULES

- ♦ Only 4-H & FFA exhibitors with livestock or small animals on the fairgrounds will be allowed to stay in a tent and/or camper in the designated area. Cambridge 4-H and FFA members are expected to commute.
- ♦ Space is limited to a first come, first served basis. Camping on grounds is strictly prohibited. No youth may stay on the campgrounds without a parent or legal guardian, unless approved otherwise by the Fair Board.
- ♦ Exhibitors staying in the camping area will be required to be in their tent and/or camper by 11:00 p.m., except Friday night and Saturday night; when the curfew will be 12:00 midnight.
- ♦ All youth staying on Fairgrounds are responsible to parents or guardians. Misconduct, mis-behavior and/or violation of curfew will result in member going home.
- ♦ Campers will be responsible for their own trash.
- ♦ Quiet hours will be from 11:00 pm – 5:30 am. No music or loud noise.
- ♦ No bicycles, skateboards, motorbikes, golf carts or 4 wheelers will be allowed on the fairgrounds except for authorized fair vehicles.
- ♦ Absolutely no unauthorized firearms, no alcoholic beverages and no smoking will be allowed on the Washington County Fairground property.